<https://www.bbc.co.uk/news/uk-england-london-23576397> Boris Johnson has overruled the governing body of the London Fire Brigade and has given the go-ahead for plans to close fire stations and cut jobs. Ten fire stations and 552 firefighters' posts are due to go as part of plans to save £28.8 million. Article notes based on current spending and funding forecasts, London Fire Brigade expects a budget shortfall of £35 million for 2014-15. See also:
