Simon

Can you please get this notice put up this morning? Then again tomorrow - in all places you can. Please can one of you email me to confirm this is done?

Anthony is due to give me the details of the lift consultant, Calford Seaden, so they will report into your site cabin for site access tomorrow morning.

I presume you have all your gear where it is needed so the single lift is not under pressure tomorrow!

Thanks

PS [REDACTED]! Siobhan feedback that the rear community room was choc-a; but we have heard 0 to date otherwise.
