

FIRE RISK ASSESSMENT

Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005

This Certificate is awarded to:

C. STOKES

in recognition of the demonstrated proficiency, verified by examination, considered necessary, within a framework of competency, to enable the above-named person to carry out or audit suitable and sufficient fire risk assessments under the above legislation. Topics covered during the course, held on 10 - 12 December 2007, include:

- Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005
- Interpretation of the legislation
- General fire precautions required by the legislation
- Responsibilities of employers and landlords
- Requirements relating to fire risk assessment
- Fire assessment terminology
- Principles of fire risk assessment
- Relationship between health and safety risk assessments and fire risk assessments
- Scope of fire risk assessments
- Assessment of hazards and fire prevention
- Assessment of means of escape
- Assessment of supporting provisions for escape
- Assessment of fire warning systems
- Assessment of fire extinguishing appliances
- Assessment of miscellaneous fire protection measures
- Assessment of fire safety management
- The overall assessment of fire risk
- The action plan
- Issue of competence in fire risk assessment

CP Black

Northern Ireland Fire Safety Panel

C.S. Todd

C.S. Todd & Associates Ltd

An IFE Approved Course is any course that has been assessed by the Institution of Fire Engineers as not equivalent to the Institution's Examinations, in whole or part, but which is of a standard and quality that is worthy of association with the Institution.