

Means of Escape

Introduction to Pr EN ISO BS 7010

CPD: 1 Hour

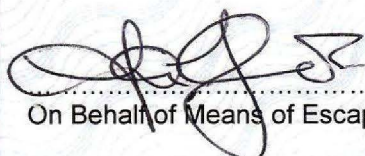

Presenter: Mr J Creak BSI PH81/1

Editor Means of Escape Publication

AWARDED TO

Carl Stokes

1. Background to Safety Signs as a valid communication strategy to satisfy the following legislation;
  - Health & Safety (Safety Signs & Signals) Regulations
  - Dangerous Substance & Explosive Atmosphere Regulations
  - Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order
2. Introduction to consultant liability and importance of using accredited best practice as benchmark for fire safety management recommendation.
3. Introduction to basic vocabulary for International and Domestic Standard conforming to ISO 7010 ISO 16069 for Safety Wayguidance. Specifically escape route signing and egress direction.
4. Introduction to the simple principles of good Fire Safety Signing and examples of bad practice. Specifically mandatory notice and non-standardised graphical symbols.
5. Introduction to specific requirements of EC Directive 92/58 and best practice to satisfy requirement BS5499 Part 4, BS5499 Part 5 and BS5499 Part 10.
6. Introduction to the need for Audit and Review inline with best practice Fire Safety Management, Risk Assessment process and Statutory Obligation

On Behalf of Means of Escape Publications Ltd

24.4.09

Dated

www.means-of-escape.com
A leading online fire safety journal