Dear Clare,

I wanted to thank you for coming to the Project Meeting last Thursday. I appreciate it can seem like you occupy a very small part of the agenda and therefore an expensive use of your time but Thursday was the first time since May that we've managed to assemble the whole team, including the client and the contractor and it was an invaluable briefing for everyone. I would not expect to need another meeting with Exova before we submit for Planning, and possibly not again until we're in negotiation with Building Control.

Please see attached the specification for the smoke exhaust/ventilation to the residential lobbies.

We are more than happy to continue working with you in Warrington, but if someone else in London is going to pick it up we would like to know as soon as possible. Please could you get back to me?

Regards

Bruce Sounes
