Hi John,

Robin Campbell here. In case you need to get in touch, my number is [REDACTED]

Can I take your mob? I appreciate you will be incredibly busy, so is there anyone else supporting you that I can go to if needed?

I have had a quick update from Martin Fitzpatrick and the team. There is currently no comms strategy and plan in place. That is my priority this lunchtime to get one together, with adequate resourcing, with a particular focus on the weekend and then in to next week.

I have also met the Deputy Leader and advised we will be putting in a comms plan and resources quickly.

I am immediately pulling in additional media and on line media support from Westminster today so that we can start to get a grip of these channels.

Martin doesn't appear to have any briefings. Is there anyone that you know I can contact to even get minutes from the gold meetings or bother about more administrative stuff?

There is a Cabinet Office teleconference at 1230 that Julia and I will dial in to. Are you ok with that?

Let me know if there's anything immediate you would like us to help with.

Robin
