Subject: Update / contacts - City, University of London support offer to LLAG

Dear John,

Further to Kim Dero's email below, I can update with a revised list and contacts. Please do contact me or the named contacts here at City if and / when you would wish to pursue any of below:

- 1) Immediate support from a professional web team to support an information website. (Contact: Tim Longden, Director of Marketing and Communications, Tim.Longden.1@city.ac.uk)
- 2) Student language volunteers to assist with documentation needs etc (what languages would need to be known) (Contact: Andrew Jones)
- 3) Further general student volunteers (e.g. processing donations) (some engaged already) (Contact Andrew Jones)
- 4) Free eye tests, replacement contact lens, frames etc for those affected from School of Optometry (Contact Matthew Such, Chief Operating Officer, School of Health Sciences Matthew.Such.1@city.ac.uk)
- 5) Possibly some accommodation until September (2 flats offered to University Alumni but none taken up as yet) (Contact: Andrew Jones)

If addition to above City Law School which already provides pro bono legal advice will work with Kensington and Chelsea Citizen's Advice (CAB) to provide free legal advice to those affected. The university is also offering computer hardware in support of this activity. Colleagues are in contact with the CEO there.

Kind regards,
Andrew

Subject: City, University of London support offer to LLAG

Hi Kim,

Thanks, further to my university day job offer, the summary of what can be offer by City, University of London is:

- 1) Immediate support from a professional web team to support a website
- 2) Student language volunteers to assist (what languages would need to be known)
- 3) General student volunteers (some engaged already)
- 4) Free eye tests, contact lens, frames etc for those affected from School of Optometry
- 5) Possibly some accommodation until September (2 flats offered to University Alumni already)

If you can pass on to LLAG or let me know who the contact would be that would be great. See you tomorrow

Best,

Andrew
