RE: housing advisors

Thanks Doug and Barbara.

It would be good to have any guidance on numbers to feed into the LLAC for the directors' meet tomorrow.

Additionally on rehousing, are there any updates on collation of offers / what may be needed? Presumably as and when this would also go through the LLAC?

thanks

Thanks Barbara

Rebecca /Greg

I have just checked with the LLACC.

They would be happy to put out a call for further volunteers, but would appreciate guidance on the numbers you will need, when they are likely to be needed etc and ultimately where they should report to.

Thanks

Doug

(I know the got two further names today without making a specific ask.)

I think this is being coordinated at LLAC , please could you go to them you are correct we will need to keep teams going as we are moving into letting properties.

Rebecca and Greg copied in as they will have more detail in what is needed.

Please could you confirm the position re housing advisors, so that we can be clear about the requirements with Housing Directors tomorrow.

(I heard mention of 45 advisors having been identified so far).

Presumably there will need to be a significant cadre to allow rotation to provide sustained support.

It would also be useful to clarify the formal route for collation of offers from boroughs inc rehousing – The line last week was that K&C were dealing with this bilaterally, but assume things have moved on.

My understanding is that the LLACC is not actively co-ordinating messages about housing, as this is being collated through the work you are leading.

Thanks

Doug

Hi Doug – has anything further been sent round re the advisors?

I am meeting again with housing directors tomorrow so useful to know –

- Are they any more needed? Did they get 25 or thereabouts after yesterday's communication?
- Are they likely to continue to need this level of support for future weeks? (so we can arrange some kind of rota)

On rehousing / collation of offers from boroughs – has there been any LLAC communication about this?

Keen that the meeting tomorrow is actually useful / plugged in rather than more handwringing.

Best

Elly
