There is a great desire from the Mayor's Office here to embed someone in the structure to help deal with the community cohesion issues arising. Inevitably a lot of questions are heading the Mayor's /City Hall's way and so this is partly about ensuring good and quick lines of communication . This may have been partly referred to in conversation between David Bellamy and John yesterday . (As you'll know, we're providing other staff to help on housing and using our Team London volunteers).

As things stand , I don't know whether I have anyone suitable to join the team and that is being looked at . But , for now , what I need to know is which part of the command structure do you / John want this directed at and . ideally , whether it would be helpful to have someone suitable from here to help .

It would help if you could get back to me soonest or point me in the best direction

For info. Please see attached LA Gold cell structure and contact details. Suggest Ellie and I coordinate so we don't overrun the people on the ground.

Best,

Emma

Ellie, Emma,

Not sure if this has filtered across but the attached and below message has gone out to partners re incident contact details. Any concerns please call me.

To ensure partners have the appropriate contacts please find attached the contact details for key staff supporting the response to Grenfell Tower incident. Also attached is an organogram detailing the structures implemented to support the response centrally.

Please share the attached with the relevant staff within your area of responsibility, including external partners where appropriate. Please note, this is version one and is likely to be subject to further updates.

Please note, the contact details are for specifically directed enquiries; routine enquiries should go to the BECC or the LLACC, dependent on their nature.

Best Wishes

Mark
