Good Morning John,

Just for information we have been in touch with both Nicholas Holgate, Chris Naylor as oncoming LLAG and Andrew Blake-Herbert as Offgoing LLAG. All are content at the moment that RBKC retain the lead at this point.

The LLACC is opening to support K&C should they need mutual aid and we are in contact with PHE and Fiona Wilcox regarding support to STAC and Mass Fats coordination. All boroughs have been made aware but no requests for mutual aid yet or other issues raised by other boroughs.

Next SCG at 0830.

Will keep you updated through the day

John

Toby

Thanks: aside from housing needs that may well spill over borough boundaries, I do not (yet) think LLAG needs to gear up.

Importance: High

Nicholas, (Andrew LLAG to 09.00, Chris LLAG from 09.00)

I tried to call but appreciate you are very busy.

I understand you spoke to Matthew Hogan from our team earlier this morning and confirmed you were content for Kensington & Chelsea to participate in the SCG meetings/teleconferences. Please let me know if that position changes and you feel there would be benefit in London Local Authority Gold participation to lead on any pan-London issues. I am not aware of any at present given the scene is contained within Kensington & Chelsea.

We are standing up people to staff the London Local Authority Coordination Centre to assist in coordinating local authority support should that be required. I understand Hammersmith & Fulham have already spoke to David Kerry with an offer of support.

David, we will also be supporting the Coroner on fatalities coordination so will keep in touch as those arrangements develop.

Kind regards

Toby
