Doug,
In the end the incident got the better of me and I have not attended. Grateful if you can share anything from Spencer and I will do likewise if I get anything from the City.

Mark

Done, I will drop you a quick line after, in terms of relationship with wider resilience agenda.

Thanks Mark
It will be Spencer, rather than me, who attends for London Councils this afternoon

Hi Siobhan,

Following our chat yesterday re LA representation; John Barradell, Town Clerk and Chief Exec of City of London, has asked me to also attend. I appreciate the City will be represented by Paul Monaghan in terms of his Bridge responsibility but I have a regional policy role in supporting all chief executives on resilience related matters. The conversation and appreciation of any wider implications will be extremely useful to me.

Kind Regards

Mark Sawyer

Hi Siobhan

I can make that slot.

Could I just check who else you have invited from London Councils/ local government – I'm conscious Spencer Palmer was our London Councils rep on the recent CONTEST Board Sub Group and Mark Sawyer has been our link into the resilience world on this agenda.

Thanks

Doug

Dear Doug,

Following the recent incidents at London Bridge, Sophie Linden would like to convene an urgent meeting this week to discuss strategic plans for national barrier asset at bridges.

Apologies for the short notice but I would be really grateful if you would please confirm your availability for a meeting with Sophie, Westminster, City of London and MPS colleagues on Wednesday 14 June at 4pm here at city hall. If you are unable to attend, we would be really grateful if you would please send a representative.

Many thanks.

Best wishes,

Siobhan Williams
