Morning All,

My thanks too. Your support has been much needed. We will do our very best to turn this situation around for the community and us.

I'm rearing to get cracking if we can deliver the items listed yesterday. Goodwill in a centre that's inviting, positive and proactive is the order of the day.

Talking of orders, we need to ensure that the LALO authority is not undermined by others arriving because this slows the process down and things will not get done/things are overlooked or worse, forgotten. We need to stick to our agenda from yesterday and flex that dependent on what the community needs UNLESS senior commanders are in attendance of course.

Regards
Rupinder

Good morning Eleanor & John

Thank you ever so much for your support yesterday - it did mean a great deal to us!

Moving on, Rupinder and I are on schedule to return within the hour - i'm on a train now.

We would appreciate some clarity on some contacts for where we go for securing services, escalating needs etc.

Apologies if this is being filtered down but from the getgo we (ealing) want to secure the goodwill built yesterday.

Many thanks Phil.
