Hello Paul, sorry for the late hour of sending this.

The attached note is what I going needed to be put in place at the rest centre. It might give you the heads up as to what is needed. John will be requesting DWP etc involvement and there are also two HO people specialists in asylum who will be there tomorrow organised through the DCLG red. The note itself has a few errors in it but I will edit it and send it over again.

The physical things for the outside area should have been requested through the BECC already.

Your two officers who had been there all day were really helpful and had clearly worked really hard - but in a chaotic environment with no structures or control. K & C had not communicated to any of their staff that London Gold has been invoked on Friday either so when I left there were two Rest Centre Managers - from Islington and from K&C.

Give me a ring at any time if you want to discuss.

Regards

Eleanor
