Subject: Kitchen window

Hi Peter

I am having a problem with my small kitchen window, it won't open, I reported this on the 19th May, was told by Rydons it would have to be reported to the manufacturer as the mechanics in the window was broken, I am still waiting for someone to let me know when this will be fixed, I'm hoping you might be able to hurry them up a bit as they seem almost finished here and will soon be gone,

Best wishes
Willie.
