Dear Company Secretary,

I am writing to remind you of the Freedom of Information request which I sent to your office on 15th June 2017. As you did not show me the courtesy of acknowledging receipt of that request I subsequently telephoned you seeking that confirmation and received it verbally from you. To date I have received no formal written response despite the fact that such a response should have been provided within 20 working days, ie on or before 5th July.

This is not the first time that I have used the Freedom of Information Act, and nor is it the first time that I have been disrespected by unexplained delays and procrastination. I will therefore expect an immediate and urgent response from you. If that is not forthcoming I will immediately lodge a complaint with the Office of the Information Commissioner.

Regards,

Francis O'Connor
