Subject: mistake on the letter

Dear Keith,

On the last paragraph it should read we are committed to resolve our issues and concerns not your, we all completely over looked it. Next time we all have a chance to proof read and no mistake is allowed.

We have be professional at the highest level for a obvious reason. We are dealing with the peoples more organised, highly professional and more proactive than us. Anyway I have corrected it and still two more peoples to sign it and they have not contacted me yet.

have enclosed the constitution for your information and comments and next meeting we have to make it official.

The position and the responsibilities will be decided on our next meeting.

regards

Shah
