Dear Paul,

Thank you so much for your kind words, your support and your time over the weekend.

You being at Westway along with corporate board colleagues made a visible difference and for that I'm grateful.

It's good to know we have a cracking team of dedicated officers and senior staff who can add value in helping to manage, transition and provide the operational and community care that's needed and even better that the pool of resources crosses all boundaries, including all London councils and partners.

Rupinder
