

Steven Phillip Mocklow

I am making this statement without the reliance on the MPS statement made previously.
This statement is supplementary to my original statement.

1

- A) A synopsis of both test reports and assessments would be routinely provided to potential clients. Full reports and assessments would be made available on request.
- B) Both Manse Masterdor and LB Plastics sponsored testing and assessments.
- C) In house training and by studying the actual test reports and assessments.

2

- A) Yes
- B) Copies were supplied to me by Manse Masterdor as part of the sales information.
- C) Either electronically or hard copy.
- D) A synopsis of both test reports and assessments would be routinely provided to potential clients. Full reports and assessments would be made available on request.
- E) I was aware they had been provided but cannot recollect who provided them.

3

- A) These were assessments carried out by 3rd party accredited test houses where glass areas were reduced from those styles with actual test evidence.
- B) These assessments were routinely supplied by Manse Masterdor.

4 I cannot recollect testing of other Suredor styles.

5

- A) A variety of items would have been assessed by 3rd party accredited test houses. For example different dor closers, spy holes and letterplates.
- B) These were routinely supplied by Manse Masterdor.

6

- A) A global assessment would be where 2 or more previously independently assessed items were combined and reassessed by a 3rd party accredited test house. For example face fixed overhead doors closers from different manufacturers.
- B) I cannot specifically recollect.
- C) These were routinely supplied by Manse Masterdor.

7

- A) From what I can recollect both testing report for the doorset and assessment relating to the use of the Astra door closer.
- B) I cannot recollect.
- C) There was no single person whose responsibility it was to present this information.
- D) I cannot recollect but I am aware it was supplied.

Steven Phillip Mocklow

P1

8

- A) 3rd party assessments were carried out by accredited test houses covering the door styles. This information was made available by Manse Masterdor.
- B) A number of 3rd party accredited assessors were used. I cannot recollect the specific assessor.
- C) This information was routinely supplied by Manse Masterdor.

9

I cannot recollect

10

- A) Both were directors of the company, John Tapscott was the Financial Director, Mike Hudson had a wider involvement.
- B) Mike Hudson was actively involved in the testing of products. I am not aware of their specific knowledge.
- C) Mike Hudson routinely supplied information relating to the testing of products.

I confirm the content of this statement I have made above is the truth based on my recollection of the events.

I agree that my statement can be used in evidence by the inquiry and further agree to it being published on the inquiries website.

Signature

Date 21 November 2019

Steven Phillip Mocklow

P2