Good Morning Judith,

I thought I would send you this letter, it was sent to all residents in Grenfell Tower Friday afternoon.

This morning Eddie has emailed me to say that there were further power surges yesterday, we have informed RGE our electrical engineers so that they can check the monitoring equipment they installed Friday and update us on what the problem is.

Janice Jones is also visiting Eddie and several other residents today to take details of the items they say have been damaged, at this stage we are merely logging the items as we do not know if anyone is or will be held liable.

I will keep you updated
