Dear Mr. Maddison

Mr. Delaney does not live in Grenfell Tower. He lives in Barandon Walk. Mr. Daffarn has recruited him as an ally.

Dear Mr Shah,

Can I suggest the following:

"I, NAME, of ADDRESS, am happy to accept the £200.00 goodwill offer from KCTMO in relation to the recent power surge issue.

For the avoidance of doubt, it is confirmed that this does NOT mean that I cannot pursue KCTMO for the power surge issue any further although I do accept that should a larger amount be awarded to me for this issue in the future from KCTMO, either pre court action or as a result of court action, then KCTMO reserve the right to deduct this £200.00 from the later settlement amount."

I believe if the item were phrased in this fashion, then people would be more willing to accept your goodwill gesture as it ensures that they can pursue the matter further if they wish.

Kindest regards and best wishes,

Joe
