Dear Shah

As I was threatened with physical violence at the Grenfell Action Group demonstration at the turf cutting ceremony [REDACTED] I am a little reluctant at the moment to give out my home address. I would prefer to meet you or Tunde for you to hand the letter over to me. Alternatively you can hand deliver it to me at our surgery this coming Saturday in the EMB Rooms, off Station Walk, between 10 am and 12 noon. Cllr Feildng-Mellen's address is [REDACTED] (just across the road [REDACTED]) and I suggest you deliver it personally through his letterbox, as the post around this area is now notoriously bad. I think that way you can be confident that both letters have actually reached their recipients.

Kind regards.

Judith

Subject: a highly confidential and seriously important letter

Dear Cllr. Judith Blakeman,

Could you please kindly confirm your postal address urgently for us to send you a highly confidential and seriously important letter signed by 90% of the residents at Grenfell Tower in relation to the Grenfell Tower Regeneration project and the recent catastrophic power surges during May 2013?

Also we shall be very grateful if you could kindly confirm the name and the postal address and email address of the Chairman of the Council's Housing and Property Scrutiny Committee.

Best wishes,

Shah Ahmed

Chairman
