Dear Miah

I am very confused about your email saying that you and your contractors tried to contact me over the phone to arrange access to my home!

Since when we corresponded by phone to arrange any access to my home and is it how TMO deal, how about the professional way of writing a letter or email? And you are sending me an email complaining that you tried to contact me on my phone the last few weeks? This is well behind the truth and yes your contractor tried to contact me on the 18 Jan and left voicemail ONLY TODAY (I have the evidence of that including missed call and voicemail)!

Now I am asking you to write me proper letter/ email stating your contractor name and company name as I would not allow anyone to come to my home and do whatever they want to do including damaging.

Waiting your reply and based on that I will make the appointment accordingly.

Thanks

Turufat
