Dear Councillor Blakeman

Having reviewed the letter I think it is a lengthy document to place in the noticeboard, being five pages long. We only try to place short briefings in noticeboards to quickly inform/update residents while they are walking by.

I do not believe the petition response has been sent to all those who have signed it but to the relevant people who submitted the petition to RBKC. It would be their responsibility to update the people who signed the petition.

I would be happy to add in a short summary page; however we have also sent a briefing note to all residents following the evening meeting on 15th August 2013 which covers a lot of the information in the petition response.

Regards

Kiran Singh

Dear Kiran

In Siobhan's absence, I am afraid I do not have Anthea's e-mail address.

I don't know if this response is to be put through the door of every resident of Grenfell Tower (residents of 94 of the 120 flats signed it) but if not, is it possible to put this up on the noticeboard?

Kind regards.

Judith
