This is difficult because all you can say is that Cllr. Blakeman has taken it up as a personal case. The position on personal cases is that if they ask a councillor to act for them – which he did at the Residents' Conference - then it is not appropriate to report the detail to an open meeting of residents. You should know that from Karen's casework. If Eddie wishes to take over the case, then he will have to have a note signed by the resident authorising him to do so. The same with the other case that went first to the group – the lady with multiple problems with both TMO Repairs Direct and Rydon.

I will ask Peter Maddison for a report on both cases in advance of the meeting and advise him that Eddie will be raising them.

I have told Peter Maddison that it is you and he for Wednesday. He is not a very happy bunny but said you will both just have to take it as it comes.

Dear Mr Darrarn,

I am pleased to confirm that I will be able to attend the meeting with the TMO and Rydon next Wednesday and hope to have some answers to the 12 points by then. But as I [REDACTED] [REDACTED] have only returned today I have not been able to progress much. Similarly Cllr Blakeman has been tied up with the TMO away day and its repercussions. However I do know that she was very keen to take up the first point (pressure being applied to accept the misplaced boilers) and hope for a response on this at least

Sincerely

cllr Robert Atkinson

Dear Cllr Atkinson,

Thank you for taking the time to meet with members of the Grenfell Tower Resident Association last Saturday.

As you are aware, we are intending on meeting with the TMO and Rydon next Wednesday 7th October and we wondered if you might be able to supply us with a response from the TMO to the 12 points that we raised, on behalf of Grenfell Tower residents, by then?

It will be most useful for our members to have a response to the concerns that we have raised so that we can be pro-active rather than re-active when we next meet with Rydon/TMO.

Thank you for your continued assistance with these matters and we will look forward to seeing a representative from our local Councillors when we meet with Rydon/ TMO, next Wednesday, at 6.45pm in the Community Rooms.

Kind regards,

Edward Daffarn
