Subject: Re: Grenfell Tower visit

Dear John,

Thank you for the holding email, but please could you confirm a time when Victoria could come and visit the residents of Grenfell Tower by the close of business on Wednesday 4th May. If you cannot give us a date by this time, please let us know when we will have a date.

It is urgent that we meet with Lady Borwick. Councillor Marshall appears to be distancing himself from his and the Housing & Scrutiny Committee's decision to investigate the management of the Grenfell Tower Improvement Works. Is no one going to hold the TMO accountable for the way they managed the project, and is everyone at the Town Hall going to buy in to the TMO narrative without questioning it or seeking an alternative view? When the majority of residents are dissatisfied with the way the project was handled, many with shocking stories to tell, I believe something has to be done.

Please could you respond with immediate effect.

Best Wishes,

David Collins

Dear David,

Thank you for this. I'll raise it with Victoria and her secretary Ms Hannah Evans, who has replaced Christine. She or I will be in touch with you directly.

With kind regards.

Yours sincerely,

Subject: Grenfell Tower visit

Dear Joh & Victoria,

Please could you supply us with a date when Lady Borwick could come and visit with Grenfell Tower residents. The project is nearing completion, and we would like to speak about ongoing matters before the contractor leaves and all is done.

Best Wishes,

David
