Subject: Re: Waiting

A few of the 15 or so residents waiting...

There is no one here to let people know what is happening or when the lifts will be working again

Despite 10 days notice of there being no communal power between 10 and 1 today, there being notices about this and texts from TMO, no one has taken it upon themselves to notify residents power is still off and the lifts and security door not working. Women, children and elderly residents are waiting in the cold for the lifts to start working - with shopping, bags, etc. The Rydon RLO knew nothing of the problem when phoned by residents, Rydon workers just said they know nothing or have told residents to walk up the stairs. Nothing has been heard from TMO.
