Subject: Fwd: Amendment to Motion on Grenfell Tower

Dear Sam,

From the emails below, you'll see that I can't now propose the amendment to the Labour motion on Grenfell Tower. Therefore, James has kindly agreed to propose the motion, and we're wondering if you could second the amendment?

I'd be grateful if you could confirm to all of us ASAP.

Many thanks,

Rock.

James

Please see email below...

Would you be able to propose the amendment to the GT motion, if we can then find someone else to second? We can get Miss Johnson to brief you on details.

Tim - who do you think would second? Maybe we could ask Sam Mackover as he sits on HPSC and knows background of project? I have asked Quentin but apparently he won't be there...

Yours,

Rock.

Dear Cllr Feilding-Mellen,

You have tabled an amendment to the motion on Grenfell Tower at Wednesday's Council meeting (seconded by Cllr Husband). You have also moved a Motion on Intermediate Housing (seconded by Cllr Faulks).

Standing Orders (14.05) do not allow for one Member to move or second more than one Motion or Amendment at the same meeting.

Perhaps you could let me know who might be prepared to move the amendment?

Thanks,

Martyn Carver
