Jeff,

This the Peter Madison scheme which is right up our street.

They are asking for a framework that we are one to procure to avoid OJEU.

Andy - any thoughts?

Could be a challenge but a start.

Regards

Stephen Blake

Steve

Good talking with you just now.

Perhaps you would have a look at the attached- supporting information for the proposed redevelopment of Grenfell Tower – RBK&C.

If you would be prepared to venture a check price against this it would help us – recognising that we need to agree a usable framework / means of procurement with RBK&C.

As mentioned, we are talking to more than one contractor in consideration of such an appointment and our client is looking to utilise their existing frameworks to procure same.

I will send a separate email shortly to connect you with my contact Keith Rule.

Speak next week

regards

Rob
