No worries – I wasn't expecting prices back today (although sooner the better).

When we spoke you mentioned a framework K&C might be able to procure you through?

I know LHC Whole House Refurbishment (WH1) and HCA Delivery Partner Panel were being considered by K&C but am not aware of Rydon being on those.

If you could advance a framework which it would be easy for K&C to procure your services it would greatly assist.

Regards

Rob

Rob,

Unfortunately I am on leave today and in any event it would be a big ask to cost such a scheme today.

By copy of email I will let Alan and Zak know.

We will help as much as we can.

Thanks

To be honest – until I have sat down with my team tomorrow, I am in the dark as much as you. Happy to have a phone conversation with whoever needs to know from your perspective, in the hope we can get some 'quick & dirty' costings on the info I have sent to you.

I could ask our QS to sit in on any such call to better explain the basis on which we want costs.

Could you let me know who we should speak to and we can book in the call tomorrow morning when I can speak with the QS.

Thanks

Rob

Rob,

Bit too soon for tomorrow but would be happy to meet to understand scope of works and budget etc.

Many thanks.

I am having a 'Grenfell Tower' day tomorrow with our team in London. Is there any chance we might get some costs feedback against the schedule and drawings I sent you to discuss at our meeting?

Perhaps let me know when we could expect same if tomorrow is too big an ask.

Thanks

Rob

Hi Robert,

As promised I have attached some case studies of previous tower block projects we have carried out.

I have asked Andy Sharp our Business Development Director to make contact with you regarding procurement opportunities.

In addition I have copied in Alan Sharrocks who as Contracts Manager knows alot more about tower blocks than I do and our Managing Surveyor Zak Maynard who will be able to provide budget advice.

Many thanks

Steve

Good talking with you just now.

Perhaps you would have a look at the attached- supporting information for the proposed redevelopment of Grenfell Tower – RBK&C.

If you would be prepared to venture a check price against this it would help us – recognising that we need to agree a usable framework / means of procurement with RBK&C.

As mentioned, we are talking to more than one contractor in consideration of such an appointment and our client is looking to utilise their existing frameworks to procure same.

I will send a separate email shortly to connect you with my contact Keith Rule.

Speak next week

regards

Rob
