Ok. We have a massive problem if not. I wanted to speak to peter blythe myself but peter arnold beat me to it.

As you can imagine its a massive measurement job for 1 person to undertake and sue estimates she needs until end of next week to finish the bill. That obviously leaves us with a massive problem in terms of getting it out for pricing.

If you have time it may be worth speaking to peter blythe to explain that we may be unable to return a tender if we don't get the extension. He could then mention that to the client?

Also I don't know how long was asked for but we need 2 weeks.

Perhaps we could also cite the fact we are struggling to drum up any interest from cladding contractors?

No problem. Steve asked him yesterday to come over to our office this afternoon.

Morning

Peter arnold has requested an extension of time. Can you double check with him what the outcome was please?

Thanks
