Janice

I think we need to provide a response to Laura from Robert that confirms that we do not have this on our buildings.

Please could you prepare a draft response.
Many thanks

Regards

Barbara

Hi Barbara

To the best of my knowledge we do not have this type of cladding on any of our buildings but will discuss again with A&R. Carl has asked a lot of questions about the Grenfell cladding and is happy that the material and the fixings are compliant but have copied this doc to him as well

Regards

Janice

Janice
Thanks for sending this on.
Do you know which of our buildings has the type of infill panels etc that are referred to in the letter?

I also assume the cladding recently installed at Grenfell would be compliant?

Regards

Barbara
