Interviewer:

Interviewee:

OPERATOR: Fire brigade.

CALLER: There's flames coming out of the top of the roof, darlin', come and get me. I've (inaudible).

OPERATOR: I know, I know, can you get yourself.

CALLER: I can see the flames coming down my flat, darlin'.

OPERATOR: Right, can you get out of the building?

CALLER: No, I can't see a thing.

OPERATOR: Why can't you leave?

CALLER: Because it's too dark, I don't (several inaudible words). Darlin', I'm 67 years of age, I can't be running –

OPERATOR: Are you on your own?

CALLER: Yes, I'm on my own.

OPERATOR: Okay. We're advising – what floor are you on?

CALLER: Oh my, the times I've told everyone, 22nd! Please, love.

OPERATOR: Right, we're advising people – listen to me, we're advising people to leave the building.

CALLER: It don't take an hour (several inaudible words)

OPERATOR: Okay.

CALLER: (Several inaudible words). I can see the flames, come and get me!

OPERATOR: Can you –

CALLER: Come and get me!

OPERATOR: We are trying to get to you but it's very difficult so you may have to leave the building yourself. You need to cover yourself with wet towels, wet sheets.

OPERATOR 2: (inaudible)

OPERATOR: Has he cleared? Okay, thanks.
