

1 Monday, 21 May 2018 2 (11.00 am) 3 Housekeeping 4 MR RICHMOND: I am going to start this morning with 5 a practical demonstration. This is me turning my phone 6 to silent. Could I ask that everybody else does the 7 same thing. 8 I know that some of you are looking for Wi-Fi 9 passwords. We have a Wi-Fi password. Can I just tell 10 you what it is in case you want to get on to the Wi-Fi. 11 You go on to what's called the "Conference" network. 12 Once you're on the "Conference" network, there will be 13 a drop-down menu which, if you are like me, will take 14 three or four times to get to work, and then you access 15 the one that says "Inquiry". Once you're in "Inquiry", 16 the password is "Inquiry2018". 17 I think if you've been coming to the hearings, this 18 will be the first time you will have seen me or heard me 19 speak. Those of you who are with solicitors may well 20 have met me already. My name is Bernard Richmond, I am 21 second counsel to the inquiry after Richard Millett QC. 22 I hope to speak to many of you today and during the next 23 six days. If you see me, everybody who knows me calls 24 me either Bernard or Bernie, and please don't feel that 25 you have to address me by my surname; first names are Page 1	1 that they have lost. The portraits which have been 2 prepared are a tribute to those people, and the work has 3 been both moving and admirable. 4 This room needs to be a calm, safe space for those 5 people and for all of us, and so can I ask you to do one 6 or two things during our sessions. 7 Firstly, when people are going through and talking, 8 can we please keep movement in the room to a minimum. 9 Of course some people will want to go out because 10 they're feeling overwhelmed or because they have to 11 leave for another reason, but can we try and keep 12 movement during it to a minimum. There will be pauses 13 between the various commemorations and you'll be able 14 then to move. 15 Phones, of course, we have already spoken about. 16 We are very pleased and we welcome our colleagues 17 from the press, but can I ask that, if you are in any 18 way tweeting or doing anything like that, you're aware 19 of who is around you and that you're not disturbing 20 them. 21 I see also some people have got their computers out; 22 again, please be aware of the people sitting around you 23 and that they may in fact be trying to concentrate on 24 what is going on and may find everything a little 25 overwhelming. Page 3
1 perfectly all right. 2 Can I introduce you to some of the team because you 3 may not have met them. I will be repeating this 4 informal briefing in various parts during every day 5 because, of course, we'll have different people 6 visiting. So if you hear this more than once, I'm sorry 7 if it gets boring. 8 Richard Millett QC is the senior lead counsel to the 9 inquiry. My co-second counsel is Kate Grange QC, 10 I wonder if she could just stand up so people can get to 11 see her. 12 The junior counsel who has been working with me on 13 this particular part of the inquiry is Zeenat Islam, the 14 solicitor to the inquiry is Caroline Featherstone, and 15 the solicitor who has been helping me particularly and 16 us with this is Ross Howarth. 17 Mark Fisher is the secretary to the inquiry, and 18 with us also we have our three assessors, we have 19 Joyce Redfearn, we have David Nethercot and we have 20 Joe Montgomery. 21 So if you meet any of those around, please feel free 22 to speak to them. 23 The important thing about the next six days is that 24 we are all here to support those who have been bereaved 25 in the tragic events of this fire to commemorate those Page 2	1 We have ushers wearing ushers' gowns who are here to 2 help, so if you need anything, just ask them. If you 3 need first-aid, if you need support, then please say so. 4 We have counsellors available and you need only ask 5 and we will make sure you get to meet with one of those. 6 If you want a quiet space then through those doors 7 there is a quiet room where you can sit, where no phones 8 are to be used, please, it's just a quiet space. 9 Through there and up the stairs there is the prayer 10 room. We will make sure that we finish in time for 11 lunch every day so you've got time to get to prayers and 12 on Friday we will finish early to make sure that 13 everyone who needs to get to prayers can do so. 14 Upstairs you know there is a space where you can 15 have tea and coffee. Those of you who are bereaved, 16 survivors and residents will see that there is 17 a separate space where only you can go, and may I ask 18 that everybody else respects that. I will come into 19 that space from time to time to see if everyone's all 20 right, but I will always ask if I can come in and if you 21 want me not to come in for any reason, just say so. 22 That's your space and it's for you to feel comfortable 23 in. That's very important. 24 You'll see the various emergency exits here marked. 25 It's very important that if there is any form of Page 4

1 emergency which requires us to leave that we do so in 2 a way that is safe and where everybody feels as 3 comfortable as possible. Can I tell you that I and my 4 team will be the last people to leave the hall and we 5 will make sure that you're all entirely comfortable. 6 The ushers and the security staff will take control 7 and tell you where to go, but as you can see, there are 8 numerous ways out and that will be done as soon as needs 9 to be done. All right? So we've got that completely 10 under control. 11 It's going to be a very emotional six days. 12 I cannot promise that I will not find it emotional and 13 I'm not going to be ashamed if I do find it upsetting. 14 There are obviously in all of the presentations, the 15 commemorations, various parts which touch various parts 16 of our emotions. There are some parts which it seems to 17 me may be particularly emotive and I will warn you if 18 there are specific things in a presentation which you 19 need to be aware are coming, not in any way to undermine 20 what's to come but so you know. So, for example, in the 21 first presentation you will see a picture of Logan, and 22 you may find that particularly poignant. 23 I will warn you also if, as will happen again today, 24 you are going to hear the voice of somebody who died. 25 I'll also warn you just before any commemoration where Page 5	1 I will announce every morning when the streaming is 2 about to begin and it will be just before Sir Martin 3 comes in. You will not be asked to rise when Sir Martin 4 comes in; it's a different sort of hearing for the next 5 six days. But so, as it were, we all gather our 6 thoughts and we have a solemnity to the start of 7 proceedings, I will ask you to be silent whilst he comes 8 in. We will then be having a silence at the start and 9 there will be a silence on the last day, when I will 10 also read, in alphabetical order, the 72 names of those 11 we are commemorating. 12 I hope all of that is clear. Again, thank you for 13 coming and supporting what I hope will be a meaningful 14 six days. 15 Thank you very much. 16 Could I ask everyone to be silent, please, and 17 streaming is about to commence. 18 (Live streaming commences) 19 (Sir Martin Moore-Bick enters the hearing room) 20 SIR MARTIN MOORE-BICK: Good morning and welcome to the 21 first hearing of the inquiry into the fire at 22 Grenfell Tower in June last year. 23 In terms of loss of life, the fire was the single 24 greatest tragedy to befall this city since the end of 25 the Second World War. The sight of the building Page 7
1 the tower is going to be shown and if, as in I think one 2 presentation, there is actually fire on the 3 presentation. 4 If I miss anything then I promise it's omission 5 rather than in any way trying to undermine what you are 6 seeing. 7 So I hope that's clear. 8 Two more things and then I think we can get started. 9 Can I ask our colleagues from the press to remember 10 two things. Firstly -- and this is a request, and it 11 can only be a request -- we request that the audio 12 visual pen portraits are used only in news reporting of 13 the inquiry proceedings and that they are not to be used 14 for other purposes without the specific permission of 15 the families concerned. 16 Secondly -- and I'm sure this is something which 17 you'll be aware of already -- a number of the bereaved, 18 survivors and residents have, through their legal 19 representatives, asked the inquiry to convey their 20 concern that they be subject to unwanted approaches by 21 the media during the commemoration hearings. We would 22 ask the media to behave respectfully and appropriately 23 towards bereaved, survivors and residents at all times 24 during the commemorative hearings. 25 Finally, this, as you know, is being live streamed. Page 6	1 engulfed in flame is indelibly imprinted on the memories 2 of those who experienced an event of unimaginable 3 horror. To experience it even at second hand in the 4 form of photographs or video recordings is truly 5 shocking. 6 When we die, we live on in the memories of those who 7 knew and loved us. It is fitting, therefore, that the 8 opening hearings of the inquiry, at which evidence will 9 be taken, should be dedicated to the memory of those who 10 died. They will be remembered through the words and 11 pictures chosen by the people who knew them best and 12 loved them most: their families and friends. They will 13 share with us their memories of those whom they have 14 lost. 15 During the coming days there will be much sorrow. 16 Sorrow at the memory of lives cut short and sorrow at 17 the contemplation of promise unfulfilled. Sorrow at the 18 loss of close relations and sorrow at the absence of 19 friends and neighbours. But that sorrow will, I hope, 20 be tempered by memories of past happiness, of times 21 spent together, and of former joys. And above all by 22 thanks giving for those who, by their lives, enriched 23 the lives of those with whom they lived and among whom 24 they moved. 25 Although what we shall hear and see over the coming Page 8

1 days may be described as memorials, they are in truth 2 much more than that; they are an integral part of the 3 evidence before the inquiry. They will remind us of its 4 fundamental purpose and the reason why it is so 5 important that the truth be laid bare. Only by 6 achieving that goal can we ensure justice for the living 7 and a lasting tribute to the dead. 8 At the end of these hearings the names of all those 9 whom we're commemorating will be read out, but now, as 10 was done at Westminster a week ago, I invite you to 11 stand for 72 seconds' silence as a mark of respect for 12 those who died. 13 (Pause) 14 Thank you very much. 15 I now invite Mr Millett, counsel to the inquiry, to 16 make some opening remarks. 17 Yes, Mr Millett. 18 Opening remarks by Counsel to the Inquiry 19 MR MILLETT: Mr Chairman, Grenfell Tower is a 24-storey 20 residential tower block, including its roof plant floor, 21 which stands in the Lancaster West Estate in North 22 Kensington, London W11. It was completed in 1974 and is 23 owned by the Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea. 24 For 43 years it provided homes for thousands of 25 Londoners in its 120, later 129, flats, 6 flats per Page 9	1 On 15 June 2017 the Prime Minister announced 2 a public inquiry into the causes of and circumstances 3 surrounding the fire, and on 29 June she appointed the 4 chairman as chairman. 5 Now, after many months of evidence-gathering, 6 assembly and analysis, the inquiry begins the hearings 7 of this phase 1 of its work. These phase 1 hearings are 8 a search for the truth about the building and its 9 make-up, about the physics of the fire cause and spread, 10 the systems in place or not in place for dealing with 11 a fire of this kind, about what were the actions and the 12 decisions of the London Fire Brigade and the other 13 emergency services on the night, and about the human 14 experience of those who escaped and, in some cases, of 15 those who did not. 16 Phase 2 will examine all the other issues, including 17 who took the decisions that led to the building being as 18 it was and why, as well as an assessment of the 19 firefighting and fire survival guidance strategies. 20 But Grenfell is not a lawyer's argument or 21 a scientist's experiment. Grenfell Tower was not 22 a public space used by countless, faceless crowds. 23 Grenfell was home. Its flats were private and 24 supposedly safe spaces where individuals could live 25 their lives, cook their dinners, do their homework, feed Page 11
1 floor. 2 Between 2014 and 2016, Grenfell Tower underwent 3 a substantial refurbishment programme, the principal 4 element of which was the construction of a cladding 5 system on the exterior of the building. 6 Sometime shortly before 00.54 on the morning of 7 14 June 2017 a fire broke out in the kitchen in flat 16 8 on the fourth floor on the east elevation of the tower. 9 Within minutes thereafter the fire had broken out of the 10 flat and into the cladding in which the building had 11 recently been wrapped. By 1.29 am the flames on the 12 exterior had reached the top of floor 23 on the east 13 elevation. By 2.51 am all four elevations of the 14 building had become involved in the fire. 15 The last surviving resident escaped the tower at 16 8.07 am on 14 June 2017. At 19.55 pm the same day, the 17 then incident commander declared that there was no 18 longer any saveable life in the building. 19 The fire at Grenfell Tower claimed the lives of 71 20 women, men and children on that night, and a further 21 life on 29 January 2018. It was the largest 22 fire-related loss of life in the United Kingdom since 23 the Piper Alpha disaster of July 1988. It was also, as 24 the chairman said, the worst loss of life due to fire in 25 domestic premises since the Second World War. Page 10	1 their dogs, host their friends and their families, 2 pursue their work in or come home from work to. It was 3 a human space for human lives, each unique. That is 4 what a home is. 5 And for many who lived there, Grenfell was not only 6 a home but a place of refuge. Many of Grenfell Tower's 7 residents had made Grenfell their home because they had 8 chosen to live in London, attracted here by its 9 vibrancy, its work and career prospects and its 10 reputation for tolerance. Some had done so because the 11 countries of their birth had become intolerable places 12 to live. 13 And beyond that, Grenfell was not only a home, not 14 only a place of refuge, it was a joined-up community 15 whose members worked, played, prayed and lived together, 16 and who stood often together as a single voice demanding 17 justice and dignity. And many of them died together. 18 A search for the truth is always hard and 19 painstaking. That is because the truth is not usually 20 one big thing, but comprises many tiny fragments. In 21 our search, using the tools of evidence and science at 22 our disposal, we risk losing sight of why we are doing 23 it and the people we are doing it for. So it is only 24 right that this inquiry starts not with the study of 25 combustible materials, fire spread and the building Page 12

1 regulations -- that will come soon enough -- but with 2 the individual human voices and faces of this tragedy. 3 Today and in the days that follow, you will hear 4 from the families and friends who have lost their loved 5 ones in the flames at Grenfell Tower and to whose memory 6 our search for the truth is dedicated. 7 The bereaved have chosen to commemorate their loved 8 ones in different ways, some by speaking to you 9 directly, some through their legal representatives and 10 some by presenting a film or montage of photographs. 11 As Maya Angelou wrote, there is no greater agony 12 than bearing an untold story inside you. We hope that 13 these days of commemorations of Grenfell's lost loved 14 ones will enable their stories to be told and the agony 15 of those who bear them to be lessened by telling them. 16 But there are some for whom the weight of grief is 17 simply too great to bear and who have chosen to grieve 18 privately or in silence. For them, the inquiry is 19 honoured to provide a voice with which to name their 20 loved ones. 21 So may we remember victoria King, flat 172. 22 So may we remember Alexandra Atala, flat 172. 23 So may we remember Marco Gottardi, flat 202. 24 So may we remember Abufars Ibrahim, flat 206. 25 So may we remember Abdeslam Sebbar, flat 81. Page 13	1 have a group of people with you and I wonder if you 2 would like to introduce those who are with you this 3 morning. 4 MR GOMES: Yes, absolutely. Excuse my voice; I've got 5 a cold at the moment. 6 MR RICHMOND: You can pull that closer to you if you want 7 to. 8 MR GOMES: I hope you can all hear me. 9 On my right is my wife, Andreia, and my friend and 10 lawyer, Martin Howe, and also my friend and lawyer Dipti 11 and our key worker and friend Enid Grant, and also David 12 behind me, who is also part of the lawyer group. 13 MR RICHMOND: Well, you're all very welcome and thank you 14 for all that you've done to prepare this. 15 Marcio, the way that you and I are going to do this 16 today, we've agreed, is that you and I are effectively 17 going to have a chat and you are going to tell the rest 18 of us about what you've prepared. 19 Perhaps you would like to tell us first of all what 20 we're looking at now. You'll see there's a screen there 21 for you but we are seeing it behind you. 22 MR GOMES: Yes. 23 MR RICHMOND: So what's that we're looking at? 24 MR GOMES: So, "Twinkle twinkle little star, do you know how 25 loved you are?" This was on my son's nursery wall and Page 15
1 So may we remember Sheila, flat 132. 2 I will now ask Bernard Richmond to invite the first 3 of the families to come here to the table to speak. 4 Thank you. 5 MR RICHMOND: Sir, good morning. Can I explain how things 6 will proceed because they will vary. Some people will 7 choose to speak from the lectern and some from the 8 table. Families and loved ones may join them either on 9 the stage or, in some circumstances, at the chairs on 10 the floor. For each person there will be a slightly 11 different arrangement and so between each of the 12 commemorations I'll ask if we may please have a pause 13 while that is done. If there are to be lengthy 14 preparations, I'll ask for a break so that people can 15 stretch their legs. 16 COMMEMORATION FOR LOGAN GOMES 17 MR RICHMOND: The first of our commemorations is 18 a commemoration to Logan Gomes and I'd invite his family 19 and solicitor to join us on the stage. 20 SIR MARTIN MOORE-BICK: Thank you. 21 MR RICHMOND: It's a really big room but you've got the 22 microphone there to help you. Take your time. 23 Absolutely no rush. 24 I know, of course, because we've met, that you are 25 Marcio Gomes and that you are Logan's father, but you Page 14	1 it was just our way of showing how much we loved our son 2 Logan. Even though he wasn't born at that time, but 3 everything was ready for his arrival. 4 MR RICHMOND: You'd been working quite hard, I think. 5 MR GOMES: I did work extremely hard to make that nursery 6 what it was. As you probably know, we lived on the 21st 7 floor and I live with my wife Andreia and our two 8 daughters [names redacted]. On that night we managed to 9 escape the horrific fire at around 4.00 in the morning. 10 MR RICHMOND: I think you'd just like to pause because, 11 although you've mentioned the names of your children, of 12 course, we'd like any publicity to be very careful if 13 possible not to name children to keep their privacy, and 14 I think that's the same with your two children, isn't 15 it? 16 MR GOMES: Absolutely, yes. 17 So that same evening, when I found out that we had 18 lost our son Logan in the hospital, and that was the 19 time I had to do it on my own because my daughter -- my 20 daughters and my wife were both -- were all in comas 21 that evening. 22 MR RICHMOND: Take your time, there's no rush. (Pause) 23 But all three are okay now? 24 MR GOMES: All three are okay. 25 MR RICHMOND: Physically okay. Page 16

1 MR GOMES: They're all physically okay and we're trying to 2 move on and forward. 3 Thank you. 4 MR RICHMOND: So we're going to look at another slide now, 5 aren't we? I think you're in control there, not me, 6 which is good. 7 MR GOMES: So this was our little star, Logan Gomes. His 8 due date was on 21 August but instead he was born on 9 14 June. That evening I was fortunate enough to hold my 10 son -- 11 MR RICHMOND: Just pause a minute because some people just 12 need to take a seat. (Pause) 13 MR GOMES: So I held my son in my arms that evening hoping 14 it was all a bad dream, wishing, praying, for any kind 15 of miracle, that he would just open his eyes, move, make 16 a sound. But as we know, that never happened. 17 As a family we went on adventures already, even 18 though he wasn't here. We did the Gruffalo search. We 19 went searching. We found him but firstly we found his 20 friends, the fox and the owl. Already we had so much 21 planned for him in terms of adventures and what we would 22 do together. The girls, they were already planning 23 which football team he was going to support. 24 MR RICHMOND: Which team was that? 25 MR GOMES: Well, the argument went towards my side, I think, Page 17	1 didn't care about the nursery; they wanted him to sleep 2 with them in their beds. They would say to us, "Mummy, 3 daddy, you can go out, you can go and have your meals, 4 you know, don't worry about the baby, we'll look after 5 the baby. You know, Logan will sleep with us, he'll be 6 all right here." So much that -- my oldest loved his 7 nursery and the way it was decorated so much that she 8 wanted to swap. She wanted to sleep there, and said, 9 "Why can't I sleep in his room?" and he can sleep with 10 our youngest daughter. But obviously we didn't allow 11 that. 12 They were extremely happy with what was coming, so 13 happy that they didn't care about not having summer 14 holidays, because normally that's important for them, to 15 go away and be on a beach somewhere, but they didn't 16 care. They said, "We'll put it off, it's not 17 a problem." 18 He might not be here physically, but he will always 19 be here in our hearts. And that will be forever. You 20 know, I know he's here with God right next to me, giving 21 me strength, courage, to take this forward. 22 This is our beautiful, sleeping baby. 23 MR RICHMOND: That was absolutely beautiful. Thank you very 24 much. 25 MR GOMES: He was so beautiful, so restful. He looked like Page 19
1 so he was going to support Benfica from Portugal and 2 Liverpool from the UK. Yeah, and I think I got away 3 with that one. But, in all fairness, they did agree to 4 compromise on that and that was that they would go to 5 Disneyland the summer after, which we would've been 6 going this summer, should everything have been all 7 right. 8 The happiness. You know, everyone was so happy that 9 Logan was going to be born. No more so than my wife, 10 Andreia, as you can see from the photos. She was just 11 glowing with happiness. The pregnancy suited her. And 12 all her friends, family, were all very happy that Logan 13 was being born. You know, we cried during the reveal 14 party that we had when I found out it was a boy. Maybe 15 I've become a little bit of a cry baby nowadays but we 16 all cried at that moment. The girls were really happy. 17 And during the party, the baby shower, many friends were 18 there and many presents and it was all happy memories 19 for us. 20 He was my gaming buddy. I could already see it. 21 You know, I could be playing the Xbox and he would be 22 there with me playing as my partner. He was going to be 23 my superstar. 24 Our daughters were already making plans as before. 25 We had a nursery ready for Logan when he was born. They Page 18	1 he was just sleeping, as babies do. At that moment, we 2 felt like our hearts had broken. At least we were able 3 to hold him and to be with him. 4 Our sleeping angel, he was. We let him go with the 5 doves so he could fly high and free. A friend once told 6 us that God gives his hardest battles to his strongest 7 soldiers -- excuse me. And certainly this has been our 8 hardest battle. And we're proud of him, even though he 9 was only with us for seven months. But he certainly is 10 always going to be a part of our lives. 11 You never know what you are made of until you're 12 broken, and I can tell you this: my wife, she's made of 13 the hardest material I know. And without her strength 14 and courage, I wouldn't be here. (Pause) 15 I might be doing the talking, but she's the one 16 that's always rock solid. 17 And we love our son and always will do. 18 MR RICHMOND: That's very, very clear from what you've been 19 saying. Thank you for coming and telling us. 20 I think we'll take a few moments, if we may, just to 21 think about what we've heard and for those who remember 22 Logan to remember him. 23 MR GOMES: Thank you. 24 SIR MARTIN MOORE-BICK: Thank you very much. That was very 25 moving and it must have been very difficult for you, and Page 20

1 I'm very grateful that you came to tell us about Logan. 2 Thank you so much. 3 MR GOMES: Thank you. 4 MR RICHMOND: Just take a moment, just take a moment or two. 5 (Pause) 6 Now, there's going to be a five-minute break while 7 we change around, so people may want to stretch their 8 legs if they may, but I will be rearranging things for 9 the next five minutes and then we will hear the 10 commemoration for Denis Murphy. 11 SIR MARTIN MOORE-BICK: Right. Shall I rise for 12 five minutes, would that be the most convenient thing? 13 MR RICHMOND: Please, thank you. 14 (11.40 am) 15 (A short break) 16 (11.50 am) 17 COMMEMORATION FOR DENIS MURPHY 18 SIR MARTIN MOORE-BICK: Yes, Mr Richmond. 19 MR RICHMOND: So we are now going to hear a commemoration on 20 behalf of Denis Murphy from flat 111. And I think the 21 first speaker is going to be Anne Marie -- is that 22 correct? -- who is his sister. 23 Good morning. I wonder if we could start, as we did 24 before, with you just introducing who is with us on the 25 stage. Page 21	1 family moved to Dorking in Surrey until 1971, when the 2 family moved again to Gravesend, Kent. We attended 3 a Catholic primary and secondary school and Denis 4 excelled in the subjects history and maths. He also 5 participated in other activities, such as the school 6 choir, being an altar boy and joining the sea cadets. 7 There was one other passion throughout Denis's young 8 life that was to override everything else, and that was 9 his love of sports, especially football, in which he 10 became a skilled player, crosscountry running and 11 distance running. He ran for the school and district in 12 1,500-metre races and went on to win many medals and 13 trophies for his sporting achievements. 14 My brother Mick often tells the story of when he 15 lost his bus fare at school and Denis put Mick on the 16 bus with his bus fare and then ran home after the bus, 17 which was a distance of 5 miles. At that time Denis was 18 only 10 years old. 19 As our father did not feature in our lives from 20 a young age, Denis took on the responsibility of not 21 only being our big brother but also carrying out the 22 role of a dad to us. He had a strong set of principles 23 and values which he adhered to and instilled in us, his 24 siblings, to follow also. These included to have 25 manners, to show respect to others, to help and care for Page 23
1 MS MURPHY: This my mum, Denis's mum; this is Denis's 2 ex-wife, who became -- remained his lifelong friend; 3 this is Peter, Denis's son and only child; and this is 4 my brother Tim, Denis's brother. 5 MR RICHMOND: You are all very welcome and thank you for 6 coming. I think what you're going to do is read 7 a statement for us; is that correct? 8 MS MURPHY: Yes. 9 MR RICHMOND: Well, again, as I've said before, there is 10 absolutely no rush. Take your time and pause as and 11 when you need to. 12 MS MURPHY: Thank you. 13 MR RICHMOND: All right? 14 MS MURPHY: I, Anne Marie Murphy, speaking on behalf of the 15 Murphy family, will say as follows. 16 Denis was born on 10 October 1960 in 17 Queen Charlotte's Hospital in Hammersmith. Mum says he 18 was born with a twinkle in his eye and a smile on his 19 face, and he kept this trademark throughout his life. 20 Denis was the proud son of Anne Murphy and was the 21 eldest of four children. He has two brothers, Mick and 22 Tim, and I'm his sister Anne, and was fondly called by 23 Denis "Little sis". 24 Denis spent his early years living in North 25 Kensington until 1968. When he was 8 years old the Page 22	1 others and to love each other. In fact, he taught us 2 and nurtured us to grow into the adults we are today. 3 When Denis left school in 1977, the family moved 4 back to West London and lived just off Portobello Road, 5 where mum still lives to this day. 6 Denis went on to take up a trade in painting and 7 decorating and worked hard until he was unable to do so 8 due to health conditions. 9 Denis continued to play football into his adult life 10 and went for trials for Charlton Athletic and Crystal 11 Palace. He didn't make the grade in professional 12 football but continued to play football for Sunday 13 league teams until his thirties, when a cartilage injury 14 forced him to give it up. 15 Denis had such a caring nature and this was evident 16 in his voluntary work he used to do with adults with 17 learning disabilities, supporting them to access 18 activities in the community, and he got a real sense of 19 achievement from doing this. 20 When Denis was 22 he met his future wife Tracey and 21 in 1984 they got a flat together in Grenfell Tower. 22 They went on to have a son, Peter, together in 1989, who 23 is Denis's only child. When Peter was seven months old, 24 they moved to a house in Mitcham, Surrey, and when Peter 25 was four, they moved to a house in Tooting. Page 24

1 Denis and Tracey eventually divorced but stayed good
2 friends, and Denis decided to move back to North
3 Kensington to be near Mum. He then got another flat in 4 Grenfell Tower before 1997 and this was on the 11th
5 floor, which was later to become the 14th floor. Denis
6 remained living there until his untimely and tragic
7 death.

8 Denis was a loving son, father, brother, uncle,
9 friend and our hero. He was the linchpin of our family
10 and touched the lives of so many people. Once you had 11 met Denis, you would never forget his warmth, wit,
12 cheeky smile and love of life.

13 Denis had three biggest loves in his life: family,
14 friends and Chelsea Football Club, and not always in 15 that order!

16 Denis was at the heart of our family and his love
17 for all of us was unconditional. This was as 18 far-reaching as his aunts, uncles and cousins, here and 19 in Ireland, and also his nieces, nephews, great nieces
20 and great nephews. Denis also had many friends he cared
21 deeply for, and if you were lucky enough to have known
22 him, you had a special place in his heart for always.

23 A great source of comfort to us as a family since
24 Denis's death is hearing the wonderful stories about him
25 from people that we have never met before, telling us

Page 25

1 stories of how they knew Denis and the impact he had had 2 on their lives. All of these stories are testament to 3 the qualities he possessed. Some of these were loyalty,
4 caring, selflessness and his non-judgmental approach to 5 everyone he knew and met.

6 A story we'd like to share with you is
7 a conversation we had with Denis at a family gathering,
8 where he told us he had become a member of Unite, the 9 bus union. We all laughed and said to him, "You can't 10 be serious? You can't drive a car let alone a bus!"
11 Well, he was serious, as we were to find out after his 12 death, when we received a phone call and an e-mail from 13 the union Unite sending their condolences and explaining 14 why Denis had joined the union. The reasons being that 15 he wanted to be a part of the campaign to make his voice
16 and the voice of his community in Grenfell Tower heard.
17 Because we truly know that Denis loved his community.

18 One of the proudest moments in Denis's adult life
19 was when his son Peter graduated from university. One
20 of his not so proudest moments was the day Peter became 21 a Tottenham supporter, as Denis was a fanatical Chelsea
22 fan. Him and Peter had lots of light-hearted
23 disagreements about their respective football clubs and 24 Denis took great delight whenever Chelsea beat
25 Tottenham. Denis had been going to Chelsea games since

Page 26

1 he was a teenager and even travelled a number of times
2 to Europe to see them play.

3 Although Denis had health issues in his later years,
4 this didn't hold him back from his thirst for life and
5 he spent his time helping out at a local boxing club,
6 watching his beloved Chelsea as well as other sports and 7 visiting Mum on a daily basis. Mum would get great 8 pleasure from these visits and the daily highlight for 9 her was cooking him his dinner after she had given him
10 a list of errands to do.

11 Aside from visiting and ringing Mum daily, Denis
12 also had a ritual of ringing his son Peter, his 13 brothers, Mick and Tim, and myself on a set day every 14 week. We would have our chats with him and, when the 15 call came to a close, Denis would always end it with 16 "Love you, son", "Love you, mum", "Love you, bruv",
17 "Love you, sis", and we would always say "Love you" to 18 him too.

19 In the early hours of 14 June 2017 at approximately 20 1.30 am, my brother Tim was to receive the last phone
21 call he would have with Denis, informing him that there
22 was a fire in his block of flats, Grenfell Tower. Tim
23 never imagined that this would be the last time that he 24 would get to speak to Denis.

25 At 2.32 am Peter and myself spoke to Denis and

Page 27

1 reassured him that we were on our way to him, also never 2 imagining that we wouldn't ever get to see or speak to 3 him again.

4 Other people always featured first and foremost in 5 Denis's life, and sometimes you had to look beyond the 6 strength he showed to understand the worry and 7 vulnerability beneath. When we look back at the life he 8 lived and the challenges he overcame, we really can't 9 think of a better role model to have had.

10 MR RICHMOND: Take your time. Would you like some water?

11 MS MURPHY: Ever since Denis has been gone, there's a gaping
12 hole in our hearts that can never be filled. And it
13 hurts. It really hurts. We can't imagine a day when it
14 won't hurt any less. The pain, loss and sorrow we feel 15 is indescribable and has left us devastated. We as 16 a family feel strongly that there is no reason in the 17 world why anyone should have death forced upon them in 18 such a horrific way, and the day Denis died, a part of 19 all of us died too.

20 To us, Denis was an inspiration, and we feel lucky
21 and blessed that he was a part of our family. His 22 warmth and love will stay with us forever and he has 23 left behind an ever-lasting legacy.

24 There are three things that nobody can eradicate
25 from our lives: (1) the memories we hold of Denis so

7 (Pages 25 to 28)

1 dear, because he does not cease to be because he has 2 become memories; (2) the only possessions we have left 3 of his now, which are a recovered handful of coins, so 4 poignant to us as he would give you his last pennies if 5 you ever needed them; and (3) that we feel him walk 6 beside us each and every day. To us, his family, he 7 really was our hero. He is our hero and he will always 8 be our hero. 9 Thank you. 10 MR RICHMOND: We'll now take a few moments, if we may, just 11 to think about what we've heard and to allow those who 12 knew Denis to remember him quietly. (Pause) 13 Thank you very much for that very moving tribute. 14 If you can wait for a second. I'll ask the judge if 15 he would give us five more minutes; there is a very 16 large amount of rescaling to do for the next. 17 SIR MARTIN MOORE-BICK: Yes, of course. 18 MR RICHMOND: Thank you. 19 (12.03 pm) 20 (A short break) 21 (12.08 pm) 22 COMMEMORATION FOR MOHAMED AMIED 'SABER' NEDA 23 SIR MARTIN MOORE-BICK: Mr Richmond. 24 MR RICHMOND: Sir, we are now moving to the commemoration 25 for Saber Neda. The commemorations are in fact going to Page 29	1 family want to be solidly beside her while these are 2 being read. 3 MR RICHMOND: You are uncharacteristically quiet, Mr Howe. 4 MR HOWE: Am I? Okay. 5 MR RICHMOND: If you would like to bring that towards you. 6 MR HOWE: I am going to read a commemoration tribute, words 7 on behalf of Saber's brother, Aref. 8 "Saber was not only my brother but my best friend 9 and the only sibling I had here in the United Kingdom. 10 We did everything together when we were kids and, even 11 until he died, we would always make decisions together. 12 Being so close in age meant that, as kids, we grew up 13 playing, fighting and arguing. But, more importantly, 14 we grew up loving and favouring each other over our 15 other siblings. The bond we had was unbreakable. 16 A bond like no other. We shared our times of trouble, 17 of sickness and hardship, but most importantly we shared 18 our happiness. Our kids grew up together and they are 19 like brother and sister, a relationship that we had and 20 I still am proud of. 21 "Losing Saber was like my world came crashing down. 22 I'd faced many blows in life, losing many family 23 members, but this was the worst. The way in which the 24 fire happened, his death, and the sudden severity of it 25 all left me with so many questions and a big void in my Page 31
1 be read by Mr Martin Howe and David Howe, solicitors for 2 the family. Good morning, gentlemen. 3 MR HOWE: Morning. 4 MR RICHMOND: Perhaps before we start you would like to 5 introduce who we have in front of us. 6 MR HOWE: We have -- 7 MR RICHMOND: Please forgive me, I think there might be 8 a problem. 9 We are just checking whether we need microphones but 10 I think we're okay. If we do for any reason, I have one 11 here. 12 MR HOWE: Okay. 13 MR RICHMOND: Perhaps you would introduce who is here. 14 MR HOWE: So we have Saber's two nephews, Oris and Masi. In 15 the middle we have Saber's wife, Flora. Besides Flora 16 we have Saber's son, Farhad, and then at the end we have 17 Saber's brother, Aref. 18 MR RICHMOND: Well, you're all very welcome. I think there 19 are three -- 20 MR HOWE: Indeed. 21 MR RICHMOND: -- commemorations to read and perhaps you'll 22 tell us who we are going to hear from each time and take 23 your time, as well you know. Thank you. 24 MR HOWE: The reason that the family are sitting in front 25 here is because Flora has some mobility issues and the Page 30	1 life, which I have still not come to terms with. 2 "We spoke many times a week, but on this particular 3 day of all days, we didn't speak. Not knowing -- we 4 didn't know what was going to happen later that night. 5 "It was Ramadan and we had broke our fast as 6 a family, something that Saber had done that night too. 7 We went to bed not knowing what was about to happen. 8 I was oblivious to everything that was going on that 9 night. I switch my phone to airplane mode in the night 10 so that I don't get disturbed. I did that on the same 11 night. 12 "It was roughly 3.15 in the morning when a call came 13 through from my daughter to her mother in which she told 14 us what was happening. Farhad had called my daughter, 15 Fatima, and was repeatedly saying, 'Our flat is on fire 16 and I can't find my dad'. He had told her they were out 17 but Saber was nowhere to be seen. 'I can't find my 18 dad.' 19 "With Farhad struggling to breathe and us all being 20 so shocked and confused as to what was happening, my 21 son-in-law brought his car around and we immediately set 22 off from Leeds towards London to try and find my 23 brother. 24 "After a drive that seemed never-ending, we arrived 25 in London and went straight to the Chelsea and Page 32

1 Westminster Hospital, where Farhad had been admitted.  2 Trying to comfort him and looking at him laid there in  3 the condition he was in, I didn't know how to handle my  4 emotions. What was I to do? Do I stay there with him  5 and comfort him, or do I go and look for Saber, who was  6 still missing?  7 "Pretty soon the search began. Within an hour or  8 so, all family members were surrounding us and everyone  9 we knew was out searching for Saber. Searching  10 hospitals, the fire site, the community centres,  11 churches, mosques, anywhere where we might have found  12 him, where he might have been taken to. All in the hope  13 that we would find him, find my brother.  14 "Hours went by, days went by, we never lost hope,  15 always hoping and praying he was unconscious in  16 a hospital or somewhere else, anywhere, as long as he  17 was alive.  18 "We never lost hope and tried to reassure Farhad at  19 the time. Flora was in a bad way, unconscious and very  20 ill. We had to be there for Farhad at a time when  21 neither his mum nor his dad could be around to help him.  22 "I was always by his side, all through his hospital  23 stay. I see my brother in Farhad and this gave me  24 an immense amount of comfort and calm in what was  25 a horrific situation to be in. Page 33	1 I hope we can get more answers from this inquiry  2 and, more importantly, justice for all those innocent  3 people who also lost their lives in this fire.  4 Including my brother, Saber.  5 MR RICHMOND: I think the second commemoration is going to  6 be read by you.  7 MR HOWE: This is a statement on behalf of Farhad Neda,  8 Saber's son.  9 "My dad was a unique person. I spent nearly all my  10 life before the fire with my family living on the top  11 floor of Grenfell Tower at flat 205 on the 23rd floor.  12 We are a very close and happy family. I grew up in  13 a safe home full of love and full of laughter.  14 "My dad loved life and loved meeting people. He  15 would get along with almost everyone, no matter what  16 age, colour, sex or religion they were. He would treat  17 everyone the way he wanted to be treated himself: with  18 respect. And for this reason he was loved by so many.  19 He was a man of deep integrity and fairness.  20 "Within the community of Grenfell Tower, my dad was  21 well liked by neighbours and friends in the tower, and  22 in the 18 years that we lived in Grenfell, there was  23 never a bad word said about him.  24 "My dad came to the UK in 1998 with my mum and me.  25 I was only about 5 years old, but I can remember from Page 35
1 "It was after Farhad was discharged and days went by  2 that the police asked us for DNA from Farhad. This was  3 when the fear kicked in. The uncertainty and the  4 heartbreak that maybe we were not going to see or hear  5 from Saber again. Maybe we had actually lost him.  6 "Pretty soon after, our worst fears were confirmed  7 and my brother was now a victim of the Grenfell fire.  8 My best friend, my brother, my role model, taken away  9 from me in such a way that has left a great big hole in  10 my heart, a void that can never be filled.  11 "I spent the next few weeks in London staying with  12 Farhad and making the funeral arrangements with him.  13 Now we are almost at the year anniversary of the fire  14 and there are still so many unanswered questions.  15 "The only thing I know is that my brother was  16 a hero. He gave up his life for his family and for  17 others. He sacrificed himself in that fire in order to  18 put others first. That is just the brave and selfless  19 person that he was, and that is a memory of him that  20 I will hold in my heart for as long as I live.  21 I will ensure that I am there for Farhad and I am  22 there for Flora, as that is what he would have wanted  23 more than anything else. He would have wanted for them  24 to be happy and safe, even when he can't be there to  25 give them that. Page 34	1 the moment that he set foot in the UK that he found  2 himself a job and worked hard until the day he passed  3 away. He was the sort of person who would never  4 complain about work and would never take a day off for  5 being sick. I always remember him saying to me that the  6 day that he stops working will be the day that he truly  7 is sick.  8 "For the last 10 to 15 years of his life, my dad  9 worked as a chauffeur. He would always wake up in the  10 morning, put on a smart suit and go to work. Dad would  11 dress smartly even on days that he didn't have a client  12 booking. He loved dressing well, which was evident from  13 his wardrobe, which was mainly filled with suits and  14 large collections of ties in all colours and patterns.  15 With his smart dress code and his unique character, my  16 father built a large customer portfolio for his own  17 chauffeur business, which included many VIPs.  18 "In the many years that we lived in Grenfell Tower  19 we got to know almost all our neighbours. From a young  20 age I remember my dad being friendly with all our  21 neighbours and he would say hi to all of them whenever  22 they would pass each other. My dad would always  23 encourage me from a young age to always greet our  24 neighbours as he believed that this was a way of showing  25 respect to them. It was thanks to this lesson from my Page 36

1 dad that I became friends with so many people in the 2 tower. 3 "As a teenager, I went to Holland Park Secondary 4 School in West London, and my dad took me to school most 5 days in his car. My dad always encouraged me to do 6 well, as well as I could, in my studies. He never put 7 any pressure on me, but he always took a kindly interest 8 in all that I was learning. Dad would listen intently 9 when I would explain to him what we were learning in 10 school. He gave me all the support he could to help me 11 make a success of my schooling. 12 "He also encouraged me and supported me in interests 13 outside of school. I started to learn the skills of 14 Taekwondo at a young and my dad would bring me to my 15 classes and wait for me to finish. He was always 16 watching me as I trained. I became good at the sport 17 and I started competing in Taekwondo at around the age 18 of 8 at Kensington Leisure Centre. My father encouraged 19 me in the sport and never complained about the long 20 distances he had to drive. He happily took me 21 everywhere as I competed all over Britain. 22 "At the age of 15 I made it into the British 23 Taekwondo squad. I was selected to compete in the 24 European championships in Poland. As always, Dad was by 25 my side. He travelled with me to support me and look Page 37	1 Holland and Germany, where my mother and father have 2 brothers and sisters. I met my fiancée in Holland, and 3 one month prior to the fire, my parents and I were in 4 Holland preparing for my wedding. I can still hear my 5 dad's advice to me, telling me that I should concentrate 6 on raising the deposit for a house and that I was not to 7 worry about the cost of the wedding as he was happy to 8 pay for it all. 9 "As a family, we celebrated my engagement to my 10 fiancée in December 2016 and my dad had told me how 11 proud he was of me and my fiancée. It causes us both 12 deep pain to think that my dad will not be there at our 13 wedding. It hurts so much to think that he will not 14 hold his future grandchildren in his arms as he has held 15 and protected me. 16 "I graduated from Kingston University with a BSc in 17 engineering in January 2017, and it was so clear from 18 the smile on my father's face that he was very proud of 19 my achievements. He had always emphasised the need for 20 education and my graduation with a degree in engineering 21 was the icing on the cake. 22 "At the graduation ceremony, Dad proceeded to buy 23 all the official photographer's photographs of me, even 24 though I told him that it was unnecessary. He replied 25 by saying, 'Nonsense, son, you only graduate once'. My Page 39
1 after me. We stayed together in the team hotel. 2 "Through my father's encouragement, I achieved 3 second-dan in Taekwondo and I have won more than 25 4 medals in varying colours of bronze, silver and gold in 5 both national and international competitions. 6 "My dad worked hard to support me in this sport, to 7 the extent that, regardless of working a night shift, he 8 would not hesitate in coming home in the morning after 9 that night shift, picking me up, and driving me to 10 competitions dotted all around the country. I know that 11 he was very proud of me and my achievements in 12 Taekwondo. 13 "My father and I were a great team together. I felt 14 so close to my dad. He was my best friend and is the 15 man I admire most. 16 "On one trip we went to Sweden, where I was 17 competing in the Viking Cup. And this, too, is a really 18 treasured moment. Together we visiting many countries 19 for the first time, and I felt completely supported and 20 safe with my dad beside me. 21 "Unfortunately, all the medals and all the 22 photographs I had taken alongside dad at these 23 international competitions were lost in the flames of 24 Grenfell. 25 "We also travelled as a family on many occasions to Page 38	1 dad made sure the photos took pride of place in our 2 home. They were all destroyed in the fire. 3 "I was fortunate enough to work alongside my dad in 4 the business which he had set up for high-end 5 chauffeuring. He gave me the flexibility to be able to 6 study and to earn money to support myself. He was 7 always there to take the pressure off me when it all got 8 too much. He would happily take on work that had been 9 allocated to me in order that I could concentrate on my 10 exams which were happening at that time. Dad always put 11 me first. He never thought of himself before my mum or 12 me. 13 "My dad was the sort of person who would help anyone 14 who needed help. He would always put others before 15 himself, no matter who they were. If a person asked my 16 dad for help of any kind, he would sometimes think for 17 days of a way in which he could help that person. My 18 dad was a calm and very kind man. 19 "I think if you ask anyone about my dad, you will 20 find no one who will say a bad word about him. I am 21 sure that they would all mention how he was always 22 smiling and that he was always a pleasure to be around. 23 He has left everyone with very happy memories and dad 24 will not only be dearly missed by us, his family, but he 25 will also be missed by many other people because he Page 40

1 touched their lives and had a positive impact on them. 2 "Since my father's death, I have missed him so very 3 much, every day. When I returned to work after the 4 fire, I felt under a lot of pressure. I felt 5 overwhelmed. I felt that I could not support my mum and 6 that I could not deal with all the consequences of the 7 fire. I could not continue to run his business. I was 8 in a state of deep despair and shock. 9 "However, one night I dreamt about my dad and he 10 came to me in my sleep, and he told me in his calm 11 voice, 'Don't worry, son, I am behind you.' 12 "Thinking about my dad and trying to do everything 13 I can to be there for my mum and to honour my dad's 14 example has given me the strength to carry on, even 15 though it is so difficult. 16 "My dad is dearly loved and he is sorely missed. My 17 dad will never be forgotten and I know that he will be 18 looking after us. He will always be behind us." 19 MR RICHMOND: There's one more statement to be read. 20 Two things. I think we'll just take a second or two 21 to let everybody just gather themselves and just find 22 out whether or not anybody needs some water. 23 Yes. I think, Martin, the other thing is that this 24 third tribute is going to be followed by a recording 25 which contains Saber's voice; is that correct? Page 41	1 "Our one and only child, our son Farhad, was born in 2 Kabul in March 1993, and I remember how happy and how 3 proud Saber was that he was the father of a baby boy. 4 "It was forbidden at that time to have men at the 5 birth of their children in Afghanistan, and I remember 6 holding our newborn son, Farhad, up at the hospital 7 window so that Saber could see him from two floors 8 below. I could see my husband's beaming smile when he 9 saw us. The nurses at the hospital told me how proud he 10 was of the moment, and Saber being Saber, he had given 11 all the nurses money to celebrate the birth of our son. 12 They were overjoyed. 13 "However, Afghanistan was moving into dark times and 14 we went from the tyranny of the mujaheddin to the 15 oppression of the Taliban. On account of Saber's 16 position within the Afghan army, we were told that he 17 was being targeted and that our lives as a family were 18 in danger. At the same time, the school where I worked 19 was closed down by the Taliban and they forbade any 20 women from working. It was such an oppressive time and 21 a dangerous time. 22 "We therefore had to take the decision to flee from 23 our country and we sought refuge here in the 24 United Kingdom, as it is a country known around the 25 world for its respect for human rights and for fairness. Page 43
1 MR HOWE: That is correct. It will be followed by the last 2 phone message that Saber left to his brother-in-law. 3 MR RICHMOND: Ready? Okay, thank you. 4 MR HOWE: I am reading this statement on behalf of 5 Flora Neda, Saber's wife, now widow. 6 "For almost 20 years we lived happily together in 7 flat 205 on the 23rd floor, the top floor, of 8 Grenfell Tower. We lived there with our son, Farhad. 9 "We were both born in Afghanistan and grew up there. 10 We met in Kabul in 1989. I had finished my university 11 degree and was teaching in a primary school in Kabul. 12 My school colleague and best friend introduced Saber to 13 me. He was her brother-in-law. I was 26 years of age 14 at the time and Saber was 28. He had just returned from 15 what was formally known as Czechoslovakia after two 16 years of training in the Afghan army. When he returned 17 to Afghanistan, he was part of the training team for new 18 recruits within the Afghan army. He was a high-ranking 19 army officer. 20 "It was love at first sight, which was, at that 21 time, difficult given the traditions of Afghan society. 22 My father did not take to Saber immediately. It took my 23 father two years to give his approval to our marriage, 24 and we were married in 1991 in Kabul. We were together 25 as husband and wife for over 27 years. Page 42	1 "We arrived in the UK in 1998 and this country gave 2 us protection. We were recognised as a refugee family. 3 We were very proud to become British citizens five years 4 later. 5 "The majority of both Saber's and my family had to 6 flee Afghanistan because of the persecution. Our 7 siblings have settled in the United States, in Holland 8 and in Germany. Given how close Holland and Germany are 9 to here, we spent many happy holidays and as a family 10 visiting our loved ones in both of those countries. 11 "Saber comes from a big family. He was one of ten 12 children and he was very close to his younger brother, 13 Arif, who lives in Leeds, and who, as we have just 14 heard, has been greatly affected by the loss of his 15 beloved brother. 16 "Saber always instilled the importance of education 17 in our son Farhad. As he did in all areas of his life, 18 Saber led by example. He immediately started attending 19 English classes on our arrival in the UK and also 20 enrolled in computer classes. He always tried to better 21 himself. 22 "My husband was a very hardworking man and, in the 23 early years of being here, he was more than happy to do 24 any work that he could find in order to support me and 25 Farhad. This work included cleaning, delivering pizzas Page 44

1 and driving. He did some minicab driving for an 2 employer and subsequently set up his own chauffeur 3 business. He was extremely proud of his business and we 4 were proud of him. 5 "Saber ran his own chauffeuring business for the 6 last ten years of his life and was so pleased when our 7 son Farhad joined him in the family business. I was 8 really happy seeing my husband and my son going to work 9 together and working alongside each other. 10 "Saber was known to all his customers as being 11 an honest and caring man. It was a reflection of his 12 standing that so many of his customers came to his 13 funeral. Saber's funeral was packed. There was 14 literally no standing room available. 15 "My son's cousin in Holland had posted a video on 16 the internet almost immediately after the fire asking if 17 anyone had seen Saber. It was a very difficult time for 18 the family following the fire. I was in a coma and 19 hospitalised. Farhad was also in a coma and being 20 treated in a different hospital. Our wider family 21 members did not know what had happened to Saber. They 22 did not know if he was dead or alive. 23 "A cousin received a call from someone in Holland 24 who felt so moved to call him because he had once been 25 driven by my husband from Heathrow Airport to London, Page 45	1 lie ahead for our son and perhaps a future filled with 2 grandchildren in our lives. 3 The second recent moment that had made my husband so 4 proud was being at our son's university graduation 5 in January 2017. Saber was so filled with pride over 6 what Farhad had achieved in his young life, and it is 7 because of the support, love and fatherly direction 8 which Saber gave to Farhad that Farhad was able to make 9 and get those achievements. 10 "It is just so sad that my beloved husband will not 11 be with us at Farhad's wedding and will not be there to 12 see and hold his grandchildren or share in the joy of 13 becoming a grandparent. Those hopes and our dreams have 14 been shattered. 15 "The chance to enjoy such special moments as 16 a close, loving family have been taken away from Saber, 17 and there is a heavy sense of loss within our hearts 18 which will never, ever go away. 19 "Saber had always been there for all of us. He 20 never complained and he always did everything with 21 a smile. He was my husband, he was my best friend. 22 I miss him so much. He will always be the love of my 23 life." 24 Thank you. 25 MR RICHMOND: I think we're now going to hear that last Page 47
1 and even though he had only been in Saber's company for 2 a short period of time in the car, he had the very clear 3 impression that he was a good and kindly person and 4 wanted to say that. 5 "Saber had that kind of effect on people. He was 6 loved by family, he was loved by his friends, he was 7 loved by his neighbours and customers alike. He was 8 a much loved and very popular man. 9 "We were delighted when we were offered a flat at 10 Grenfell Tower back in 1999 and we were both very proud 11 of our home. My husband and I decorated our flat 12 regularly and we had very many happy times in there 13 together. 14 "We were a close community at Grenfell Tower and our 15 door was always open to our neighbours. Sadly, we have 16 lost many friends and neighbours in the fire, including 17 two young girls on our floor who would regularly come 18 into our flat to see us. They always came in to look at 19 the tropical fish tank which we had in our flat. 20 "Looking back over the most recent times in Saber's 21 life, I would say that the two proudest moments were, 22 first, being at the engagement party of our son Farhad 23 in December 2016. Saber was looking forward to the 24 marriage of our son and his lovely fiancée. And, of 25 course, he was looking forward to everything that was to Page 46	1 recording. 2 (Last recording played) 3 MR RICHMOND: So that concludes that particular part of the 4 tribute. 5 So I see that it's 12.40. I wouldn't want the next 6 people to feel in any way rushed. Can I invite you 7 perhaps to break now until 2 o'clock? 8 SIR MARTIN MOORE-BICK: Yes. We shall do that, then. I'll 9 rise now and we'll break until 2 o'clock. 10 Thank you very much indeed. 11 (12.40 pm) 12 (The short adjournment) 13 (2.00 pm) 14 MR RICHMOND: Sir, good afternoon. 15 Can I say two things before we start. The first is 16 that I interrupted you at the end of Saber Neda's 17 commemorations when I know you wanted to thank the 18 family for their contributions, so can I apologise. 19 SIR MARTIN MOORE-BICK: Well, don't worry. I'd like to make 20 it clear straight away that I'm already finding these 21 descriptions of the deceased extremely moving and I'm 22 very conscious of the effort which some of those who are 23 presenting them have had to make in order to tell us 24 about their loved ones. It can't be an easy exercise 25 and I'm very grateful to all of you who have come along Page 48

1 to do this. If I don't mention something specifically 2 at the end of your address, don't think that I don't 3 appreciate it, I do very much indeed. 4 Thank you. 5 COMMEMORATION FOR JOSEPH DANIELS 6 MR RICHMOND: Sir, we are now moving to a commemoration for 7 Joseph Daniels, and that is going to be presented by his 8 son, Sam. 9 Two things: the first is I think it was flat 135 in 10 which he lived, and, secondly, that Sam has asked 11 specifically that there be no applause after his 12 presentation. 13 Thank you. 14 MR DANIELS: My father, Joseph Daniels, moved to London in 15 1982. Grenfell Tower had been his only home since then. 16 The events of that night took his life and all trace of 17 his existence in this world. He never stood a chance of 18 getting out. It should never have happened. 19 MR RICHMOND: Thank you very much. 20 SIR MARTIN MOORE-BICK: Thank you very much. 21 MR DANIELS: Thank you. 22 MR RICHMOND: I'm not going to ask you to rise as you have 23 only just come in but there will be a moment while we 24 arrange the next two commemorations, who are going to 25 sit on the stage together. One is for Mary Mendy and Page 49	1 MR RICHMOND: Thank you very much. 2 MS SANUSI: This is a statement for Mary Mendy prepared by 3 and being read on behalf of her sister Betty Mendy and 4 Marion Telfer, her niece. 5 Mary Ajayi Augusta Mendy was born in the Gambia on 6 11 June 1965. She was hard working. She came to 7 England in the 1980s. In 1992, she gave birth to 8 Khadija, which turned out to be the greatest and 9 proudest day of her life. 10 MR RICHMOND: Sorry to interrupt, I am going to ask you to 11 pause to see if we can get the lights to come down just 12 a little bit more, because there are beautiful photos 13 and we'd like to see them. (Pause) 14 Can you see all right? That's much better, thank 15 you. 16 MS SANUSI: She completely devoted her life to Khadija. 17 Marion says: 18 "I joined my aunt in December 1992. We moved into 19 Grenfell Tower around 1993. My aunt and Khadija lived 20 at the address until that fateful night where our lives 21 were changed forever. 22 "My aunt was my hero. She has been in my life for 23 every major event. She was my mum as well as my aunt. 24 For the first time in my life, my aunt is not a phone 25 call away. She is not there to listen to my complaints Page 51
1 the other for Khadija Saye. 2 SIR MARTIN MOORE-BICK: Take whatever time you need. 3 MR RICHMOND: Thank you very much. (Pause) 4 COMMEMORATION FOR MARY MENDY AND KHADIJA SAYE 5 MR RICHMOND: Sir, the commemoration for Mary Mendy, who 6 lived in flat 173, is going to be presented by the 7 solicitor for the family, Shakiratu Sanusi. 8 Are you going to do it from there or from the 9 lectern? 10 MS SANUSI: I'll do it from here. 11 MR RICHMOND: Would you introduce who is on the podium with 12 you? 13 MS SANUSI: Betty Mendy is Mary's sister. 14 MR RICHMOND: Sorry, could you just pull that in front of 15 you so we can hear you speak into it. Thank you. 16 MS SANUSI: Betty Mendy, she's Mary's sister. This is 17 Brian Jackson, a friend providing her with support, and 18 David Lammy, who is very close friends with Khadija, and 19 of course this is Marcia Willis Stewart. 20 MR RICHMOND: Thank you. 21 I have been asked by people who manage the sound to 22 ask if you could put the microphone in front of you. 23 That's it, perfectly, that way we can hear everything 24 that you say. 25 MS SANUSI: Thank you. Page 50	1 or my gossip. My aunt made me a priority in her life. 2 She was the best aunt and sister we could have asked 3 for. She was warm and kind. She welcomed everyone into 4 her home. Grenfell Tower was a place all her family and 5 friends could find shelter if they ever needed it. 6 "Mary Ajayi Augusta Mendy was a carer who worked 7 within her community. She was a humanitarian who made 8 it a passion to help those less fortunate than herself. 9 She frequently travelled to Gambia and offered donations 10 to hospitals and other organisations. 11 "On the night of 14 June 2017, our family lost two 12 much loved members. My aunt was the strong one, the 13 fighter and the protector. The pain is unbearable. 14 There are no words to describe the emptiness that's in 15 our hearts." 16 Marion says: 17 "I hate night time because night brings silence and 18 silence brings tears of sadness, because that's when 19 I start to remember the blaze of fire. 20 "There will be two empty chairs on the table for 21 every birthday, Christmas and New Years, but they will 22 forever own a position in our hearts. We will carry 23 their memories throughout our lives, our children's, and 24 our children's children. Although the pain feels like 25 forever, it will soon be replaced by happiness. All of Page 52

1 the tears will be replaced by memories of joy. Until we
2 meet again."
3 MR RICHMOND: Thank you.
4 I think we are now going to move to the portrait for 5 Khadija Saye from the same flat, and I think, Marcia,
6 you are going to present that.
7 MS WILLIS STEWART: "Dear Sir Moore-Bick, my daughter,
8 Khadija Saye was 24 years old when she lost her life in 9 the Grenfell Tower fire of June 2017. She was very 10 gentle, very kind, and friendly.
11 "She was born in Hammersmith, London, in 1992. She 12 attended St Charles Primary School and Sion Manning
13 Secondary School, both in Ladbroke Grove, West London.
14 She later went on to Rugby School in Rugby,
15 Warwickshire, and the University for Creative Arts in 16 Farnham to study photography. Her burning passion was 17 photography. Encouraged by her mother, Mary Mendy, who 18 also lost her life in the same fire.
19 "Khadija said to me one day, 'Daddy, I'm in love
20 with images.' It was this passion that Khadija pursued
21 to the end because it gave her great satisfaction and 22 brought her joy and happiness.
23 "Thank you very much. Yours sincerely,
24 Mohammadou Saye.
25 MR RICHMOND: Marcia, I think what's going to happen now is

1 that there is going to be a piece of film.
2 Two things: firstly, could you just tell us what
3 we're going to see, and then, before it's played, I am
4 going to ask that the lights are actually dimmed. I'll 5 do that for all of the videos so that, when they are 6 played, we can get to see them in their best possible
7 way.
8 So what are we going to see? I'm sorry.
9 MS SANUSI: We are going to see a short video put 10 together following the documentary that was to be aired.
11 She'd been part of a group of artists that had gone to 12 the Venice Bienalle, and following the unfortunate
13 events of 14 June, a short clip was put together
14 celebrating her and her burgeoning career, as it were,
15 at the time.
16 Together with her family it was discussed at length,
17 and her father, that it would be appropriate to show
18 that edited version because part of it was filmed when 19 she was at home in Grenfell, and also it exhibited her
20 talent and the poignancy of the development of her
21 career shortly before all of that.
22 MR RICHMOND: Thank you.
23 I am just going to ask that the lights perhaps be 24 lowered a little more and then, once that has been done,
25 we'll see the video. Thank you.

Page 54

1 May I take a seat, sir?
2 SIR MARTIN MOORE-BICK: Yes, of course.
3 MR RICHMOND: Thank you.
4 (Video played)
5 MR RICHMOND: Sir, that concludes the presentation and, on 6 that really rather poignant and beautiful photograph,
7 that concludes the presentations that we have prepared
8 for today.
9 SIR MARTIN MOORE-BICK: If I may say so, those 10 were extremely impressive presentations and really bring 11 to life again the people that you are commemorating, and 12 I'm very grateful to have had a chance to see and hear
13 them. Thank you.
14 MR RICHMOND: Sir, that concludes the presentations we have 15 today.
16 If I may say, firstly, there will still be tea and 17 coffee available upstairs and so please feel able to 18 spend some time upstairs with each other having tea and 19 coffee. I'm around if people need to raise anything
20 with me. But otherwise, may we please meet again
21 tomorrow, ready for a 10 o'clock start.
22 SIR MARTIN MOORE-BICK: Yes. We'll finish now and start
23 again at 10 o'clock tomorrow. I look forward to seeing 24 all of you here again then.
25 Thank you very much. Thank you.
