1	Thursday, 24 May 2018	1	Wednesday as well. That would mean dividing Tuesday and
2	(10.00 am)	2	Wednesday up into two days.
3	HOUSEKEEPING	3	That's what I'd like to do, and so if you're
4	MR RICHMOND: Good morning, everybody.	4	currently a Tuesday or you've got a Tuesday client, then
5	Good morning. One of the really good things about	5	if you'd come and see me during today, we'll see which
6	what's been going on in the last couple of days is that	6	people can be moved from Tuesday to Wednesday or would
7	we've had some people just one or two people	7	like to move from Tuesday to Wednesday. But I think
8	contact us to say they would like to participate, so	8	it's really, really important that the people at the end
9	that's really good. So there's going to be one very	9	of this commemoration series feel that they have as much
10	short commemoration but still added in to Victoria and	10	time as everybody else. I hope everybody agrees with
11	Alexandra, so that's lovely.	11	that because I think that's really important. Given the
12	Secondly, people have lots of things going on in	12	way that everybody has been supportive for the last few
13	their lives and, of course, some people find this more	13	days, obviously we want the people who have their

24	today has had to move and, again, that's not a problem.	24	The spaces for going out of the building are marked
25	So we've still got a number of things to get entirely	25	very, very clearly.
23	So we've still got a number of things to get entirery	23	very, very elearry.

4	saying I don't think we're going to be ready much before	4	to watch and listen.
5	10.30.	5	Today's commemorations are all, I think, personal
6	Whilst I'm here, can I tell you a few of the normal	6	commemorations. There are no images in any of the
7	announcements and raise a particular matter. This is	7	commemorations which would cause extra added distress,
8	really geared at all of you, including the lawyers.	8	so I don't think there's anything to warn you about
9	We've tried really hard to accommodate people in the	9	about those.
10	days that they want to do, and I think it's important	10	I had a very interesting meeting yesterday with one
11	that people feel able to do that because they've	11	of the residents who told me what he thought we should
12	arranged childcare, some of you have had counselling	12	be doing to make people aware for the next few days
13	before you come and do it and the like. What's happened	13	about distressing content and we'll be trying that, but
14	is Tuesday has become really full. The reason why we	14	there's nothing today that I think you need to worry
15	tried to have a full Tuesday is I know it's half term	15	about. That's right, isn't it? Looking at my trusted
16	week next week and, of course, people have got children	16	assistant. So that's fine.
17	and they want to have some of the half term week before	17	Our colleagues in the press are, as always, very
18	we start the opening addresses the week after.	18	welcome. I think it's the same people because I'm
19	However, it's really important, isn't it, that what	19	recognising the same faces. Please remember our two
20	happens is not a rush or people don't feel in any way	20	requests: number 1, about only using the images shown
21	that they're being squashed up or not having the time to	21	for reporting the inquiry, because that's why they've
22	do what they want. So we have two options: number 1 is	22	been made; and, secondly, about being sensitive about
23	to sit a very long day on Tuesday until we've finished,	23	approaching people because some people have found
24	and option 2 notice the emphasis in my voice as I say	24	approaches intrusive. That's not just the press, by the
25	option 2 is that we add a day and that we sit on	25	way; that's anybody who doesn't know people. Please be

If it's possible, I would like to start tomorrow morning at 9.30, but I'm aware that obviously there are people who have planned getting everybody here. So if any of the first presentation will find 9.30 impossible, could they come and tell me. But if we can start at 9.30 tomorrow, that would mean that we would have a little bit extra time to make sure we all got away in time for those who wish to do Friday prayers at their leisure. rides in our cousin's car as a young adult, he loved living. He wanted to do so much, not just for himself but everyone around him. He was my father's guardian angel and was always traipsing after him after Dad had multiple strokes, because he never wanted him to feel lonely, always taking care to bring him treats he enjoyed eating.

"He was my mother's friend, having a laugh with her, making sure she was okay. He was so modest, never wanting praise for the numerous things he did for his family. His two brothers, me and Hanif, were his best friends. He loved us a lot and my sister Husna was his buddy. He was a bit of a joker too and would crack funny one-liners only he could come up with, which were pure genius. He would make us laugh for hours on end.

"His small world was so happy and fulfilled, because he never let anything get him down. He was a trooper, a lion heart, brave and loyal. He would be there with you through thick and thin. Sometimes he would make me feel like he was my older brother even though he was younger than me, due to the advice he would give to me when I was in need of advice about daily life struggles. He was very mature for his age and wise. How quickly he was taken away. The world has lost a magnificent soul and I have lost a brother who meant the world to me.

"Despite being on Earth for a short period of time, Hanif touched many hearts and will be greatly missed by all his remaining family members, friends and myself and anyone that knew him.

"Love you, little bro, wish you didn't have to go so soon."

Now I'll move on to my sister, who is the youngest out of us siblings, Husna Begum:

"Husna was the epitome of adventure and spirit. She marvelled at the universe and had a burning desire to travel and experience as much of the world as possible. Husna was an intellectual and often indulged in creative writing and studying history. She was an amazingly good cook too; she could make any kind of dish or dessert and it would always come out delicious and right the first time. If you ever ate her cooking, you would always ask to eat more.

"She valued her friends and family and would never forget anniversaries or birthdays. She had a great sense of humour too, like my parents and my brothers, as well as being cheeky too from time to time. I still remember bringing her from hospital as a baby and me, nine years of age, holding her with so much joy and happiness that I finally had a little sister too after my two younger brothers. In our family she was our

MR RICHMOND: Why don't you just take a pause for a second, have a breath or two, because you've been reading for a long time. When you're ready, then feel free to start. Q (Pause) MR HAKIM: Okay. Mohammed Hanif: "Whoever crossed paths with Hanif was immediately captured by his bright, warming smile. His gentle and kind approach was so unique and made everyone around him feel comfortable and at ease. Hanif's generosity always shone through, be it with gifts or simply friendly advice. "Hanif was an extremely passionate person when it came to faith and God as well as helping others in need. "Hanif has always been extremely creative from a young age. He was brilliantly talented in drawing and design and adored animation. He would often create his own animations or create beautiful pictures for our whole family. Hanif loved watching movies, especially

"Loved you more than you ever knew. You were my perfect little baby sister."

As a result of this fire, not only did I lose five members of my immediate family, I have also been made an orphan by it.

I would like to add a few last words, if I may.

I can say with my hand on my heart that I am extremely proud of my family for remaining close to each other in their last moments before passing away. I am even more proud as a brother that my siblings did not leave my parents behind, even though they might have had the chance to escape.

My parents were elderly and had mobility issues. My father had previously had two strokes and a heart attack. He should not have been on the 17th floor. We had complained about this numerous times.

As loving children, they chose to stay with their parents. I consider my family as nothing less than soldiers. They are the bravest among everyone I know.

Mum, Dad, Hamid, Hanif and Husna, I love you and miss you always. My beautiful family, you will never be forgotten.

Thank you.
